Superior comfort and support in an extra-large recliner

Doctor's offices and medical facilities get new patients every day, and the clients physical proportions are usually unknown until he or she enters the waiting room. Winco's XL Convalescent Recliner offers the extra room and support that larger users need, with all the features found on our regular convalescent recliner.

The 529S includes a highly specialized "saddle" seat, designed to prevent skin breakdown for patients. A polyurethane seat cover provides better airflow while an internal gel-pack molds to the body for extra protection.
